Tyler County 4-H News

"Try not. Do or do not. There is no try." ~ Yoda in The Empire Strikes Back

May Highlights

May was a great month for Tyler County 4-H! Our clubs held their monthly meetings, the extension office had the monthly council meeting, and the annual club managers meeting. Our Senior 4-H Food Challenge team including Caylin Flowers, Emily Jernigan, Peyton Scroggins, and Kaci Vaughn, came together at the extension office to practice for their state competition next month. Please keep these young ladies in your thoughts and prayers as they compete on June 11. Kaci Vaughn will also be participating in state Fashion Show (June 10) and Food Show (June 12.)

Above left, Colmesneil 4-H Club held a very successful fundraiser on May 2nd to raise money for their new Shotgun Shooting Sports projects efforts. They sold hundreds of barbeque plates and were able to send one of their adult leaders to get certified to work with 4-Hers participating in shotgun shooting sports. Above right, Zebby Damian, Nathan, Brandi, and Kaci Vaughn accept the grant award that they applied for from Pineywoods Friends of NRA on May 3rd! Great job making things happen Colmesneil 4-H Club!
